We encourage all presenters to check back often for helpful tips and updates to ensure a successful experience.
Presenter Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Standard Conditions Agreement

• Responsibilities as a Presenter
• Materials and Equipment
• Authorization to use Presentation Materials
• Copyright
• Proprietary Information Policy
• Conflict of Interest and personal/business promotion

The proposal, presentation and all associated materials (hereinafter “Contributed Work”) will be completed in the required format, sign to all PMI provided templates, meet all deadlines as provided, and be ready for presentation at the PMI Global Conference as scheduled by PMI. PMI reserves the right to cancel, at any time, Contributed Works if all conditions herein stated and subsequently provided to the author/presenter through normal means of correspondence are not met. Failure to provide any requested deliverables within the deadlines may preclude your consideration for this and future Conferences.

1. Acceptance as a Conference Presenter
   By accepting the opportunity to speak at PMI Global Conference, presenter(s) agree to the following:
   • Registration—presenters must be registered and settled in advance of program agenda confirmed in order to be eligible to present. Registration includes payment (if any) and associated taxes (i.e., VAT) that may apply. (8 weeks)

   Unlike previous years, Presenters will not be required to provide a white paper. An emphasis will be placed on the initial stage of the speaker presentation efforts in delivering a white paper.
   • Submit draft outline of presentation and script (storyboard), at least 12 weeks prior to Conference
   • Submit draft PowerPoint presentation with references and participate in virtual practice/coaching with a member of Toastmasters International, no later than 6 weeks prior to Conference
   • Submit final PowerPoint presentation no later than 4 weeks prior to Conference

   Detailed instructions and guidance will be provided to guide Presenters in the development of their presentation.

   • Presenters are expected to arrive in event city and check-in as a speaker at least one (1) day prior to the scheduled presentation date. Individuals failing to appear without at least 48 hours’ notice may be suspended from presenting at future PMI Live Events. Any and all decisions by PMI are final.

   Conference sessions are evaluated by registered attendees and audited by PMI staff. Evaluation feedback and data collected will be used for future Conference development purposes.

   • Additional presentation-based deliverables, not listed above, may be assigned upon or after the proposal has been accepted. PMI will notify presenter of the change.

2. Materials and Equipment:
   a. Meetings rooms will be set up with the following:
      • (1) Video (Windows-based with audio issued (presenters may not use their own equipment in meeting rooms)
      • (1) LCD projector
      • (1) screen
      • Appropriate speaker microphones on head table
      • (1) wireless (cable]
      • (1) Flashlight
      • (2) wireless microphone for audience participation
      • (1) wireless mouse
      • Paper writing
   b. Internet connectivity is not available. Presentations should not be internet dependent.
   c. Presenters are responsible for handouts, survey tools or any supporting material not outlined above.
PMI Policy Regarding Proprietary Information

- Content is tailored to a global audience
- Has not been presented or published in another forum including PMI or projectmanagement.com
- Content may be published after Global Conference

3. Authorization to use Presentation Materials:
   a. The presenter and co-presenters agree to: Author/Presenter(s) represents and warrants that either (1) he/she is the sole author of the Contributed Work, (b) now owns all rights in it granted hereunder, free of liens or encumbrances, and (c) has full power to execute this Agreement, or (2) the work is a work for hire and (c) he/she is the sole author of the Contributed work, (b) the employer has granted permission for its use, and (c) the organization has granted permission to execute this agreement.
   b. Author/Presenter will obtain any permission or clearance required for the subject matter of the Contributed Work by their employer or any other organization or individual prior to submitting the Contributed Work. Author/Presenter represents and warrants that, with the exception of PMI and PMI Component events, (1) the Contributed Work has not been published or presented publicly prior to the date of the Conference, or (2) the work is in the public domain. Author/Presenter further represents that the Contributed Work is original, and does not infringe the statutory copyright or common law literary rights of others, or violate the rights of privacy or libel other persons. If the Contributed Work contains copyrighted material owned by a third party, the Author/Presenter agrees to obtain written permission from the copyright owner to use the copyrighted material in the Contributed Work and shall promptly deliver such written permission to PMI.
   c. PMI reserves the right to reject presentations concerning PMI products or services that are under development unless the presenter is a current active member of that project’s “leadership” team (e.g. guidance, core, etc.) and the content of the presentation has been approved by the relevant PMI GHQ Program Director. This policy applies to products or services under development in the areas including, but not limited to, standards, certification and research. This policy does not apply to products or services that are currently available in the market place.
   d. Author/Presenter agrees to indemnify and hold harmless PMI, its licensees, assignees and contractors in any action arising out of facts which constitute a breach of the aforementioned representations and warranties and hold them harmless for any and all third party claims, damages, liabilities, costs, charges and expenses including reasonable attorney’s fees arising out of any breach of the aforementioned representations and warranties or relating to the content of the published paper or its presentation.
   e. Author/Presenter hereby grants PMI, its affiliates and subsidiaries, a non-exclusive license to reproduce, adapt, distribute, perform, and display the slide presentation in any form or medium whatsoever, as well as the right to license others to do so. A copy of this slide presentation will be available for download by registered Conference participants for a limited time. Author/Presenter retains the right to use all or part of the paper submitted in future works of his/her own.
   f. Author/Presenter will prepare the Contributed Work and/or, or designee, will present the Contributed Work at the PMI Conference.
Conflict of interest and personal / business promotion policies

• Presenters are encouraged to refrain from promoting services and products from the podium.

• If you are interested in promoting a book, please visit the Speaker’s Toolkit regarding the onsite PMI bookstore.
